

UNDERSTANDING OUR FOOD SYSTEMS GATHERING

An interactive workshop to implement community food plans in First Nations communities.

JANUARY 23 & 24, 2019

9:00AM - 5:00PM

Regional Food Distribution Association - 570 Syndicate ave S

MORNING - 9:00am

Opening & Introductions

Overview of the Indigenous Food Circle & Understanding Our Food Systems Project

by Jessica McLaughlin & Charles Levkoe

Food Sovereignty on Our Plates
by Rich Francis

MORNING - 9:00am

NOTE: Attendance on Thursday will be limited to community partners and relevant connecting partners.

Opening

Small Group Workshop Rotations
Food Sovereignty with Rich Francis (Seventh Fire Hospitality Group)
Relevant Workshop First Nation Priorities (TBD)
Relevant Workshop First Nation Priorities (TBD)

12:00 LUNCH
Cooked by Rich Francis

AFTERNOON - 1:00pm

Pathways of Resistance/Resilience:
Improving Traditional Food Access for Urban Indigenous People
Special Guests from Saskatchewan

Northern Manitoba Food, Culture, &
Community Collaborative and Community Representatives

Julie Price

Brian Trewin from Leaf Rapids - Grow North Boreal Gardening; Sarah Cameron from Waywayseecappo First Nation - Food Sovereignty Activist; Kelly Hindmarch from Poplar River First Nation - Greenhouse Coordinator; Donna Sanoffsky from Wabowoden - Bayline Food Buying Co-op; Wabowoden Traditional Teachings; Beekeeping Project

Closing

AFTERNOON - 1:00pm

Introduction to Action Planning

Action Planning
Community Representatives + Relevant Connecting Partners

Sharing Community Plans

Closing

IN THE AFTERNOON OF JANUARY 22

You are welcome to join Marcel Bananish and Rich Francis for a meet & greet and preparation of the traditional food that will be served at the gathering.

@ the RFDA, both indoors and in the outdoor tipi